

Please do not implement any proposal that would lessen the telephone privacy act. For a long time I was not getting any of those nerve wrecking calls and recently they are trying to start up again. I have asked them not to call me, but they persist and I would like for it to stop.